

WHAT HAS CHANGED IN THE MARKET IN THE LAST FEW YEARS, AND HOW DOES eBIZ HELP YOU TAKE ON THIS EVOLUTION?

“For a long time we had been looking for a smart channel for the exchange of product data such as care instructions, material compositions, and prices - not only with our direct our customers but also with their production partners in the global production network.”

eBIZ has been a standardized but at the same time flexible definition of content, which will help us to interconnect with even more partners in our global supply chain network, avoiding individual amendments.”

WHAT ARE SOME OTHER BENEFITS OF USING eBIZ?

“One of our main strengths is very fast and flexible service for special customer projects. Together with our main customers we have developed a project based on the eBIZ standard to exchange order and shipping data.”

This solution allows our customers to have a kind of live access to the production and delivery data of each order, which is very important for their internal production planning.”
